

Commerce Plaza & The Girl Scouts

As a part of Commerce Plaza's commitment to financial literacy, we now offer programs for the Girl Scouts geared toward empowering girls with financial literacy skills essential to their everyday lives.

About Us

A financial literacy Program of YES Community Counseling Center a 501 c3 nonprofit, community-based organization. Working with elementary students throughout the year. Commerce Plaza has hosted over 77,000 students from school districts across Long Island and Queens since opening in May 2000.

Programs

We are thrilled to now offer evening & weekend visits for the Girl Scouts. We can help your troop earn their financial literacy badges. Open to all Brownies, Juniors & Cadettes. Call or Email with inquiries.

Topics Included

- Finding out how much things cost.
- The difference between wants & needs.
- Earning income.
- Exploring jobs.
- Ways to exchange money.
- Managing your spending habits.

We can't wait to see you!
